ESTON, near BURBACH, in WILTSHIRE.

TANNER'S is the only account of this House which the Editors have to offer. He says, it was "An Hospital or Priory for Canons or Freres of the Trinitarian Order for the redemption of Captives, as ancient as the time of K. Henry III.; by some said to have been founded by Stephen archdeacon of Salisbury." ^a It was dedicated to the Holy Trinity, valued, 26th Hen. VIII., in the total revenue, at 55*l.* 14*s.* 9*d.*, after reprises at 42*l.* 12*s.* per annum, and granted, 28th Hen. VIIIth, to Sir Edward Seymour, Viscount Beauchamp; and, 6 Jac. I., to Edward Earl of Hertford. ^b

There is a Paper Survey of the Possessions of this House, temp. Hen. VIII., in the Augmentation Office.

TRINITARIAN FRIARS of WORCESTER.

TANNER, from Nash's Worcestershire, vol. ii. Append. cxxxix., says, "In the parish of St. Nicholas, towards the bottom of the Angel Lane, between that and Broad Street, was a Religious House belonging to the Friars of the Order of the Holy Trinity for the redemption of Captives."

FRIARS of KNARESBURGH, in YORKSHIRE.

LELAND, in his Itinerary, says, "The Priory self of Knarresburgh is a three quarters of a mile beneth March Bridge ripa citeriori. One Robert Flowr, sunne to one Robert Flowr that had beene two tymes Mair of York, was the first beginner of this Priory. He had beene afor a little while a monk yn New-Minster-Abbay in Morpeth, forsaking the landes and goodes of his Father, to whom he was heir as eldest sunne, and desiring a solitarie life as an heremite resortid to the Rokkes by the ryver of Nidde; and thither, apon opinion of sanctite of hym, resortid other; and then he institutid his Companie in the sect of Friars of the Order De Redemptione Captivorum, alias Sanctæ Trinitatis. Estoteville gave landes to this House, at such time as he lay at Knarresburgh." ^c

King John, it appears, gave to Ivo, hermit of the Holy Cross at Knarresburgh, forty acres of land in Swinesco. This gift was confirmed by King Henry the Third. ^d

A Convent of Trinitarian Friars was unquestionably settled here in the reign of Henry the Third, by Richard king of the Romans, in the Chapel of St. Robert of Knarresburgh, the Robert Flower alluded to by Leland. The endowment deed, dated in 1256, is the second of those which follow the present Account. These Friars were endowed, at the Dissolution, with a revenue amounting to 35*l.* 10*s.* 11*d.* per annum. The Site of their House was granted, 7th Edw. VI., to Francis Earl of Shrewsbury.
